Led by the college's Principal, Dr. Anil Kumar Mishra, the rally carried forward an array of colorful banners, and participants chanted powerful slogans emphasizing the importance of each vote in shaping the future of the state and country.

At the Panchayat Headquarters, the participants gathered for a solemn oath-taking ceremony, where they pledged to uphold democratic values and actively contribute to fostering voter awareness. The event emphasized the critical role of informed voting in strengthening democracy and highlighted the individual's role as a responsible citizen in making their voice heard.

Dr. Anil Kumar Mishra, Principal of Jaspuria B.Ed. College, expressed the importance of voting as a fundamental right and a civic duty. In his address, he encouraged participants to serve as role models within their communities and to emphasize the significance of voting to family, friends, and neighbors.

The event was attended and supported by several distinguished individuals, including the former Mukhiya of Getalsud, Mr. Gaurishankar Munda, the college's Director, Dr. Shalini Priya, and Assistant Professor Dr. Priyanka Sharma.
