Special Lecture Organized on National Cancer Awareness Day

On 7th November 2025, a special lecture was organized at Jaspuria B.Ed. College, Bisa, Getalsud, Ranchi under the National Service Scheme (NSS) on the occasion of National Cancer Awareness Day. The program was conducted under the guidance of Assistant Professor Vibha Kumari, while the lecture was delivered by Assistant Professor Praveen Singh Kushwaha.

The main objective of the program was to spread awareness among students and teachers about cancer — a serious disease — so that society may become more sensitive towards early detection, prevention, and timely treatment. At the beginning of the session, Vibha Kumari introduced the theme of the program and explained that National Cancer Awareness Day is observed every year on 7th November to raise awareness about the symptoms, causes, and preventive measures of cancer among the general public.

Following this, Praveen Singh Kushwaha elaborated on the different types of cancer, their early symptoms, causes, and preventive methods. He emphasized that unhealthy lifestyle habits, use of tobacco and alcohol, imbalanced diet, and pollution are some of the major causes of cancer. He urged all students to adopt a healthy lifestyle and to inspire their families and communities to do the same.

Faculty members Sajib Kumar, Prabha Henry, Sarita Kumari, Yugeshwar Linda, and Sheetal Kumari also shared their views. In the end, Vibha Kumari extended a vote of thanks to everyone, stating that such events play an important role in spreading awareness in society and instilling a sense of responsibility among the youth. The students participated enthusiastically and gained valuable knowledge about cancer and its prevention. Thus, the special lecture organized on the occasion of National Cancer Awareness Day proved to be not only informative but also effective in strengthening health awareness and social responsibility among students.

Awareness Program Organized on International Human Rights Day at Jaspuria B.Ed. College, Bisa, Ranchi .

Date: 10 December 2025

International Human Rights Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and dignity at Jaspuria B.Ed. College, Bisa, Ranchi. This day is observed globally to honor the principles of human dignity, freedom, and equality and to raise awareness about human rights. The program was organized by the National Service Scheme (NSS) of the college with the main objective of acquainting teacher-trainees with the importance of human rights, their protection, and the global challenges associated with them.

The program began with Professor Incharge Dr. Praveen Singh Kushwaha, who gave a detailed account of the history, objectives, and international declarations of human rights. He mentioned the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations in 1948 and stated that education is the means that makes a person aware of their rights and empowers them to raise their voice against injustice. He said that it is the responsibility of the students who are going to become teachers to play an active role in establishing human values in society.

In the same sequence, Dr. Prabha Henry emphasized the relevance of gender equality, freedom of expression, dignified life, child rights, and the right to education in human rights. She particularly highlighted the protection of the rights of women and children as the foundation of social progress.

The trainees of the college also participated with great enthusiasm and presented their thoughts. Shruti connected human rights with self-respect, saying that a person's identity is established by their rights. Pooja emphasized the need for justice and equality, raising issues related to social discrimination, caste inequality, and gender violence. Sudhir highlighted the role of the constitution in the context of human rights, saying that fundamental rights provide security to citizens, and it is our moral duty to protect them.

Shabya highlighted the central role of education in human rights, saying that only an educated society can balance its rights and duties. Pankaj mentioned the influence of technology and media, saying that correct information and awareness are the greatest strengths in protecting human rights.

The program was conducted very efficiently and smoothly by Pallavi Kumari. She played an important role in connecting all the speakers and relating the relevance of Human Rights Day to the practical life of students. The vote of thanks was given by trainee Premwati.

At the conclusion of the program, it was concluded that human rights are not just legal terms but the fundamental basis of every person's life. All trainees resolved that they will contribute to the protection and awareness of human rights as responsible teachers in the future.

All the trainees and assistant professors Sajib Kumar, Vibha Kumari, Reema Upasana Kachhap, Babita Mahato, and all other faculty and non-teaching members were present at the program.

National Youth Day Celebrated at Jaspuria B.Ed. College: Call to Embody Vivekananda's Ideals

Date: 12.01.2026

Jaspuria B.Ed. College, Bissa, celebrated National Youth Day with great enthusiasm under the aegis of Jaspuria Group of Institutions. The event began with Chairman Shri Jailendra Kumar and Principal Dr. Anil Kumar Mishra paying floral tributes to Swami Vivekananda's statue.

In his inspiring address, Shri Jailendra Kumar said, "Swami Vivekananda believed that education is not mere accumulation of information, but a means to character building and development of inherent powers. The highest duty of a teacher is to recognize and guide the inner potential of a student."

Principal Dr. Mishra emphasized that 'education that builds man' is the prime need of today, urging trainees to adopt Swami Vivekananda's values in their lives.

A speech competition was held, in which B.Ed. and D.El.Ed. trainees participated enthusiastically. The event was conducted by trainee Asha Turkey.

Teachers and staff from Jashpuria B.Ed. College, Kingpin College of Nursing, and Jashpuria Public School attended the program. The event concluded with a collective resolve to follow Swami Vivekananda's ideals.

Community Survey Report

Date : 07.03.2026

A Community Survey Programme was successfully conducted in the Getalsud area by the trainees of Jaspuria B.Ed. College from the sessions 2024–26 and 2025–27. The main objective of this survey was to study the social, educational, economic, and health-related conditions of the community and to create awareness among the people.

During the survey programme, the trainees visited households and established contact with the local residents to collect information regarding their problems, needs, and lifestyle. Special attention was given to topics such as education, cleanliness, health, drinking water, the status of women, children's education, environmental protection, and awareness about government schemes.

The trainees also spread awareness among the community regarding cleanliness, the importance of education, environmental conservation, and health-related issues. They motivated people to avail the benefits of government schemes and to ensure regular education for children.

Through this community survey programme, the trainees got an opportunity to closely understand different aspects of society. The programme proved helpful in developing their practical knowledge, leadership qualities, communication skills, and sense of social responsibility.

The guidance and cooperation of all the teachers of the college in the successful execution of the programme were highly appreciable. In the end, the trainees expressed their gratitude to the community members and resolved to continue participating in such social activities in the future.
